Dear Mr. Chancellor:

This is to thank you for all of your efforts to make our stopover in Austria a pleasant one. Mrs. Nixon was deeply touched by the splendid bouquet of pink roses sent to her at the Schloss Klesheim, and we very much appreciate the many other kindnesses extended us as I commenced my journey for peace to the Middle East.

With warm personal regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Lechner:

It was good to see you again, and this is to thank you for the gifts which you and Mayor Salfenauer sent to Mrs. Nixon and me during our recent stopover in Austria. I was especially pleased to receive the splendid print of Old Salzburg, and Mrs. Nixon was equally delighted with the beautiful bracelet enclosed in a quaint, hand-painted box. These tokens will serve as constant reminders of the warm and gracious hospitality we associate with your city.

David Eisenhower also deeply appreciated your thoughtfulness in wanting him to have a copy of the book Salzburg. You are indeed generous.

With kind personal regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Mayor:

This is to express my thanks for the thoughtful mementos you and Governor Lechner sent to Mrs. Nixon and me during our stopover in Austria. The excellent print of Old Salzburg together with the beautiful bracelet which Mrs. Nixon received will be pleasant reminders of the warm and friendly hospitality of your charming city.

With our every good wish,

Sincerely,
